Sixty-seventh session
Item 139 of the provisional agenda*
Administrative and budgetary coordination of the United Nations with the specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency

Budgetary and financial situation of the organizations of the United Nations system

Note by the Secretary-General

Summary

The present note by the Secretary-General transmits to the General Assembly the statistical report of the United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination on the budgetary and financial situation of the organizations of the United Nations system. In its resolution 63/311 on system-wide coherence, the Assembly requested the Secretary-General to create a central repository of information on operational activities for development, including disaggregated statistics on all funding sources and expenditures, building on the comprehensive statistical analysis of the financing of operational activities for development, and to ensure appropriate and user-friendly online access and regular updating of the information contained therein.

The secretariat of the United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination (CEB) has worked continuously to enhance the structure and content of the present report. In particular, each new release of the survey has included more comprehensive data on revenue and expenses relating to extrabudgetary resources from Governments and from non-State donors.

While reporting on assessed contributions has remained the same, the report now contains a more transparent presentation of revenue, expenses and approved budgets, in line with the International Public Sector Accounting Standards. Notably, it features a new table on total expenses for 2010-2011 by major programme category. These categories allow CEB to collect the financial data used by the Department of Economic and Social Affairs in its report on operational activities for development, thereby reducing the reporting burden on organizations.

The present report and the corresponding analysis of the figures presented, including a number of charts on trends across recent years and snapshots on the distribution of extrabudgetary resources by country, organization and donor type, are also available on the website of the CEB secretariat (http://www.unsceb.org) and represent a preliminary output in accordance with resolution 63/311.

Statistical report of the United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination on the budgetary and financial situation of the organizations of the United Nations system

I. Introduction

1. The present report is the twelfth of its kind to be presented by the United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination (CEB).

II. Improving transparency and comparability

A. Revenue reporting

2. The organizations of the United Nations system have a wide range of funding models and terminologies. The assessed organizations are funded through a mandatory scale of payments approved by the appropriate governing body. Additional contributions to the organizations are deemed to be voluntary, although they are usually earmarked. However, for the non-assessed (or voluntary) organizations, all funding is voluntary.

3. In the past, the report on the budgetary and financial situation of the organizations of the United Nations system did not report on total revenues but rather used the regular budget figures to reflect the core funding.

4. For the first time, the report presents the total revenues of United Nations organizations by type of funding. The four common types of funding are:

- Assessed contributions
- Non-earmarked voluntary contributions
- Earmarked voluntary contributions
- Revenue from other activities

The figures in the report are also found in the financial statements of individual organizations and have been converted, as needed, into United States dollars for comparability.

B. Expense reporting

5. In the past, expenses were reported by source of funding, either from the core budget or from extrabudgetary sources. However, in results-based models, all funding received, regardless of its accounting definition, is for the work of the organization.

6. To improve the transparency and comparability of expense data, the organizations have agreed to a high-level set of expense categories in order to provide a clearer picture of how the funds of the United Nations system are spent. For the first time, total expenses are presented against five common programme themes, including development assistance and humanitarian assistance, for use by the Department of Economic and Social Affairs.

C. Budget reporting

7. For many organizations, the concept of the regular budget, funded either by assessments or voluntary funds, remains valid. However, in this model, some organizations report only the administrative expenses in their regular budget, while others report total expenses (see footnotes to table 1). The governing bodies of an increasing number of organizations are now approving a total funding envelope, based on a strategic plan which may include all funding sources. One organization, the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR), has implemented a needs-based budget. Against these varying definitions, budget figures have been presented in the traditional format with the appropriate footnotes.

D. Requirements of the International Public Sector Accounting Standards

8. Most United Nations organizations implemented the International Public Sector Accounting Standards for the 2010-2011 reporting period. One of the requirements of the Standards is the harmonization of terminology for reporting financial data. Resource inflows are reported as "revenues" and outflows, formerly known as "expenditures", are now called "expenses". While the terminology may have changed, the underlying activities (receipt or disbursement of funds) have not fundamentally changed (see the glossary of terms below).

III. Financial statistics of the United Nations system

9. As noted above, following extensive consultations with over 25 organizations of the United Nations system, harmonized reporting categories for revenues and expenses were agreed upon. In addition, a standard methodology for converting non-United States dollar accounts into United States dollars was established (see glossary below). As a result, there has been an improvement in the consistency and comparability of the data presented and a substantial reduction in the number and complexity of footnotes in the tables.

10. The tables in the report are grouped under the following five subject headings:

(a) Approved budgets (table 1);

(b) Revenues (tables 2-2D);

(c) Expenses (tables 3 and 3A);

(d) Assessments (tables 4-7);

(e) Working capital funds (table 8).

A. Approved budgets (2006-2011)

Table 1. Approved budgets (2006-2011). Following previous practice, table 1 shows the regular budgets of organizations for 2006-2011. In this context, regular budgets are traditionally equated with regular resources plus any approved expenditures from extrabudgetary sources, if approved by the governing body. As noted, some organizations report total approved expenditures as their approved budget.

B. Revenues

Table 2. Total revenue by organization (2010-2011). This new table reflects the four major categories of revenue received by United Nations organizations, namely:

- Assessed contributions
- Non-earmarked voluntary contributions
- Earmarked voluntary contributions
- Revenue from other activities

Table 2A. Earmarked voluntary contributions received from Member States (2010-2011): summary by organization. Table 2A previously covered extrabudgetary resources. Earmarked voluntary contributions are equivalent to this funding type and, for the purposes of the present report, are considered to be the same. Under the International Public Sector Accounting Standards, the concept of earmarked voluntary contributions is accepted and understood, resulting in more consistent and comparable data.

Table 2B. Extrabudgetary resources from non-State donors (2002-2009). This newly designed table covers the total revenues received by United Nations system organizations from defined categories of non-State donors. Previous reports considered only the amounts from the top five contributors in each category. Data are broken down into four categories:

- Revenue from the European Commission and its agencies
- Revenue from organizations of the United Nations system
- Revenue from international monetary institutions such as the World Bank and regional development banks
- Revenue from foundations, corporations, national committees and other civil society organizations

Table 2C. Earmarked voluntary contributions (2006-2011). This traditional comparison table shows the total extrabudgetary contributions for 2006-2009 and earmarked voluntary contributions, by organization, for 2010 and 2011.

Table 2D. Donations in kind (2006-2011). This newly designed table covers total donations in kind, by organization. While some have substantial amounts of this type of contribution, many others have none.

C. Expenses

Table 3. Total expenses by organization (2010-2011). This new table shows expenses for 2010-2011 by major programme category. The use of such categories allows CEB to also collect financial data for use by the Department of Economic and Social Affairs in its report on operational activities for development, thus reducing the reporting burden on organizations. The new categories, which are also intended to increase comparability and transparency, include:

- Development assistance
- Humanitarian assistance
- Peacekeeping (Department of Peacekeeping Operations)
- Technical cooperation
- Normative, treaty-related and knowledge-creation activities

Table 3A. Total expenditure by organization (2006-2011). This traditional comparison table shows total expenses, from all funding sources, for each organization for the period 2006-2011.

D. Assessments

Table 4. Assessed contributions by organization (2006-2011). Table 4 shows the total assessments payable by members of organizations under approved regular budgets. Assessed contributions relating to United Nations peacekeeping operations are not included.

Table 5. Percentage assessments (2010-2011). Table 5 shows, for each of the organizations that collect assessed contributions against an approved scale, the percentage amounts of the assessed contributions payable for 2010 and 2011.

Table 6. Assessments voted and received (2010-2011). Table 6 shows, for each of the members of the organizations collecting an assessed contribution, the assessments payable and the amounts collected in relation to current assessments for 2010 and 2011 and arrears collected during the biennium 2010-2011.

Table 7. Collection of assessed contributions (2010-2011). Table 7 shows the percentage of the current year's assessed contributions that were collected at 30 June and at 31 December (fiscal year-end) for 2010 and 2011. The table also shows, by organization, the total amount of all assessed contributions that remained outstanding at the end of each fiscal year.

E. Working capital funds

Table 8. Working capital funds. Many, but not all, organizations have a governing body-mandated amount of cash reserves to be held in case of funding fluctuations resulting from, inter alia, foreign exchange impacts and funding changes. These can take the form of a liquidity policy, a working capital fund or other mechanism. Where these exist, organizations have reported their value for 2010 and 2011. To improve comparability, the amounts are presented as a percentage of available resources, which are defined as the sum of all revenue types that are not earmarked.

Glossary

A. New revenue categories

Assessed contributions

This category reflects contributions received as an assessment, a contributory unit or other payment scheme mandated in a Convention or other basic instrument of an organization.

Non-earmarked voluntary contributions

This category reflects contributions received by the organization in support of its mandate or programme that have not been earmarked by the donor. There is no individual report on the use of each contribution.

Earmarked voluntary contributions

This category reflects all earmarked revenues received by an organization. Generally, each contribution will have an individual reporting requirement.

Revenue from other activities

This category reflects all other revenue recorded by the organization that is not considered a contribution under the organization's accounting policies.

B. New expense categories

Development assistance

This reflects activities of the United Nations funds, programmes and agencies that are specifically aimed at promoting sustainable development in developing countries. Development assistance differs from humanitarian assistance in that the focus is on long-term impacts.

Humanitarian assistance

This reflects the assistance provided by the United Nations system for humanitarian purposes, typically in response to natural or manmade disasters and with a short-term focus.

Technical cooperation

This reflects activities undertaken by United Nations system organizations that cannot be directly linked to a national development plan.

Peacekeeping operations

This reflects the activities of the Department of Peacekeeping Operations and any other expenses incurred in support of those activities.

Normative, treaty-related and knowledge-creation activities

This category reflects a wide range of activities that do not fit into the descriptions above. United Nations organizations may establish standards (namely, normative conduct) that may or may not be mandatory or binding on Governments or Member States. They may also undertake programmes of work as a result of international agreements and treaties. Lastly, most organizations undertake a wide range of activities such as establishing policies and performing research with the goal of enhancing or creating "knowledge".

C. Mapping former reporting categories and methodologies

Budgetary or core revenues/expenditures

Traditionally, the terms "budgetary" and/or "core" were used interchangeably to reflect funds received by an organization to undertake its programme of work. This revenue included assessments, unearmarked voluntary contributions or other earned or miscellaneous income. While the revenues received were in support of the core activities or budget, the total amounts actually received (with the exception of assessments) normally did not correspond to the approved budget.

In general, core revenues equated to assessed contributions plus unearmarked voluntary contributions plus other revenues.

Extrabudgetary or non-core revenues/expenditures

These two terms were used interchangeably to reflect funds that were earmarked by the donor. Because they were traditionally considered to be outside the budget, especially for assessed organizations, these funds were denoted as extrabudgetary. In practice, there are many types of revenue which are outside the budget but which are not actually earmarked.

In general, revenues previously reported as extrabudgetary or earmarked contributions are the same as the new category of earmarked voluntary contributions.

Calculation of United States dollar amounts

For most United Nations organizations, the United States dollar is the currency of account. For organizations that report in a currency other than the United States dollar in their financial statements, their reported amounts were converted using the year-end United Nations operational rate of exchange. As a result, all foreign exchange conversions used the same methodology for improved comparability and transparency.

The following agencies do not keep all their accounts in United States dollars:

- Euro accounts: IAEA, UNIDO, UNWTO
- Canadian dollar accounts: ICAO
- Pound sterling accounts: IMO
- Swiss franc accounts: ITU, WIPO, ILO, WMO, WTO.

(Footnotes on following page)

Notes:

(a) This table shows the amounts of the estimated expenditure actually approved under regular budgets plus any approved supplementary estimates;

(b) The budget amounts of the following organizations represent total approved expenditures for 2010 and 2011: PAHO, UN-Habitat, UNAIDS, UNODC, UNOPS, UNRWA, WHO, WMO and WTO;

(c) As at 2010, UNHCR is implementing a needs-based budget;

(d) IFAD: IFAD's budget represents the operating costs of the organization and does not include any disbursements for financing;

(e) IMO: The figures used in table 1 are regular budget figures for assessment purposes only and do not include other programme funds;

(f) UNDP: "Regular budgets" refers to unearmarked voluntary contributions to UNDP and exclude trust funds, cost-sharing contributions or any other extrabudgetary contributions;

(g) UNEP: "Regular budget" refers to the budget allocation to the UNEP Environment Fund approved by its Governing Council. Contributions to the Environment Fund are voluntary;

(h) UNFPA: "Regular budgets" refers to unearmarked voluntary contributions to UNFPA and excludes trust funds, cost-sharing contributions or any other extrabudgetary contributions;

(i) UN-Habitat: From 2006-2009, "regular budget" refers only to the budget allocation received by UN-Habitat from the United Nations Secretariat;

(j) UNICEF: "Regular budgets" refers to regular resources plus additional resources to the biennial support budget approved by the Executive Board;

(k) UNIDO: Net of reimbursable expenditure;

(l) UNODC: UNODC has an approved budget, not a regular budget, and did not report in the past.

Notes:
(a) For 2006-2009, these amounts were defined as extrabudgetary, which meant they were generally earmarked for specific purposes;
(b) Under the IPSAS, IFAD no longer classifies any of its contributions as earmarked;
(c) UPU did not report any earmarked contributions for 2010-2011.

Notes:

(a) Development assistance: Activities specifically aimed at promoting sustainable development in developing countries. It differs from humanitarian assistance in that the focus is on long-term impacts;

(b) Humanitarian assistance: Assistance provided for humanitarian purposes, typically in response to natural or man-made disasters and with a short-term focus;

(c) Peacekeeping operations: Activities of the Department of Peacekeeping Operations;

(d) Technical cooperation: Activities that cannot be directly linked to a national development plan;

(e) Normative, treaty-related and knowledge-creation activities: Activities such as establishing standards (namely, normative conduct), activities required by international agreements and treaties, and a wide range of activities such as establishing policies and performing research in order to enhance or create "knowledge".

Note:
(a) Working capital funds are usually established to allow a "buffer" against reductions in revenues during a fiscal year. Since these funds cannot be used to offset losses in earmarked contributions, they are compared against total non-earmarked revenue.
